

*Life Detonated:
The True Story of a Widow and a Hijacker*

by Kathleen Murray Moran

A MEMOIR THAT READS LIKE
FICTION AND WILL KEEP YOU
RIVITED UNTIL THE LAST PAGE

The gripping true story . . .

about a NYPD bomb disposal expert who was killed on September 11, 1976, when a terrorist bomb left in Grand Central Terminal exploded. This powerful memoir details Kathleen as she rises from being the unintended target of a political terrorist battle, to college professor and author.
