

NEW READ

9/11 Remembered, by retired NYPD Deputy Inspector Bob Martin, shares remembrances of the hero New York City police officers who rushed towards danger on that horrific day.

The book begins with two of his own short stories based on his years in public service, followed by three first-person recollections.

It is a moving tribute to our 9/11 heroes and the sacrifices they made, not only on that day, but in the two decades that followed.

All proceeds from this book will be donated to the 3256 Foundation, honoring NYPD ESU Truck 3 Sgt. Mike Curtin. The book is available for purchase on Amazon by clicking here.

