

Even Mayor de Blasio's chief labor negotiator knows...

“New York City police salaries are a laughingstock; throughout the nation everyone knows that city cops are underpaid.”

— Robert W. Linn
current NYC director
of labor relations,
April 12, 2002

...that New York City police officers
are overworked, understaffed,
underpaid and unappreciated.

We support our city. When will our city support us?

Patrolmen's Benevolent Association of the City of New York
