

The writing is on the wall.

And on the new use-of-force report and the expanded stop-and-frisk report with the tear-off receipt, not to mention the memo book entries and the arrest reports and criminal complaint reports and lost property reports that must be completed in accordance with the 1,600-page Patrol Guide, the New York State Penal Law and NYC Administrative Code, which you should have memorized during your six months of Academy training or during the 60+ credits of college courses you took before you joined...

The duties and expectations keep growing, but the pay stays the same.

The most complex policing job in the world belongs to the lowest paid police officers in this area.
