

All PBA members, NYPD police officers, qualified civilian and uniformed members may apply to Pace University's iPace program and will receive a $50 application fee waiver. The iPace program is priced at a 45% discount on traditional undergraduate tuition. Students may choose to study in the fields of Business, Computer Science, Nursing, or Arts and Sciences.

Eligibility: All PBA members, NYPD police officers, qualified civilian and uniformed members of the service.

Note: Flexible part-time schedule including the option of 100% online study with optional on-campus meetings, a top-rated, private university education. Plus, you'll have access to all the same Pace facilities that all our traditional students enjoy, including support from one of the largest career services teams in the New York City metropolitan area.
