

Employment Opportunity

Attention PBA Members:

The Investigations Division of the New York City Administration for Children's Services is currently seeking to hire retired NYPD Uniformed Members of the Service (UMOS) to perform investigative work in the title of Protection Agent/Investigative Consultant. There are well over 100 retired NYPD UMOS currently working for the Investigations Division of ACS as Investigative Consultants. Investigative Consultants assist the Division of Child Protection in investigating and navigating critical and sensitive cases involving the protection of New York City's children.

Candidates possessing experience with specialized and complex child abuse investigations, domestic violence investigations, gang investigations, warrants, missing persons, juvenile crimes, human trafficking, fugitive enforcement experience in a current or former law enforcement position will be strongly considered.

Note: Experience in a closely related law enforcement work unit or task force might include Domestic Violence Officer, School Safety, Youth Coordination Officer, Field Information Officer, Neighborhood Safety Team Officer and Neighborhood Coordination Officer. Other law enforcement experience may be considered. Candidates willing to perform evenings, midnights and weekends will be given preferred consideration.

Benefits include:

- Shifts that include days, evenings, and midnights
- Current pay of $75,193
- Night Differential for evening and overnights
- Hybrid work schedule – 3 days in office; 2 days working from residence
- Opportunities for overtime
- Opportunity to contribute to the NYC Deferred Compensation plans
- No age limit for work

Please go to the following link to apply:

ECS Investigative Consultant I | City of New York Jobs \(nyc.gov\)